

Wishing you a happy Easter from Christ Church!

I thought your own Easter Card would help you to feel part of our Christ Church community on this special day.

As we remember how energised the first disciples were that first Easter morning to discover that the Spirit of Jesus was still alive, would continue in their hearts, would lead them to share him with others, and was leading them forward into the world, so we can share that same joy and grace today, knowing that we are “forgiven, loved and free.”

The horrors of his death were past, but not forgotten. In the same way we pray for a time when the horrors of this disease will be past. But we pray also that we will never forget all that so many people are doing to look after us, heal us when sick, supply our basic needs, and keep us safe.

This will be a time when we bring our prayers together and share them at the same time, together at home.

We will be sharing communion on Sunday “Together at Home”, at 10.45 am, and you can join the service, or watch it, on the church website at www.christchurchonline.org. Look for the post which says Easter Sunday worship.

Or you can go on Facebook @christchurchstocksbridge.

Gwen and I wish you the love and peace of our Lord at this Easter.

Yours sincerely
